RECHARITERS.—A called meeting of those interested in the reorganization of Virginia Tent (female) No. 8 was held last night in Good Templars' Hall, south Fairfax street, and was largely attended. The officers were elected by members of Purity Lodge, (female) of Washington, and the following were elected and installed for the ensuing year: Wm. J. Webb and Murry, of Eagle Tent No. 1, Washington, D. C.; C. R. R. Mrs. Geo. H. Lyle; D. R. Mrs. Sarah Deaton; E. S. Mrs. S. E. Lyle; R. S. Mrs. E. Lyle; Treasurer, Miss Annie E. Lyle; L. Mrs. M. P. Simpson; L. G. E. F. Simpson; O. G. W. H. Freeman; Snepherd, J. F. Bartlett; P. C. R. J. H. Bartlett. After the installation remarks were made for the good of the order by Messrs. Murry, Webb, Patterson, Brown and Murry, Jr., of Eagle Tent, Washington, and Mrs. Murry and others, of Purity Tent, who gave some very interesting information as to the prosperity and advancement of the order. The Tent adjourned to meet again next Monday evening at 8 p. m. at Good Templars' Hall.

HIGH PRICES FOR WASHINGTON PROPERTY.—The highest point yet reached in the real estate sales of business property in Washington is $45 a foot, which will probably be paid by Mr. Charles Baum, for the property at the corner of Eleventh and F streets. Mr. Baum holds an option on the property, and will probably purchase. If this deal is made, the price will be the highest yet paid for F street property, the highest preceding price having been $39 a foot. Forty dollars a foot is asked for the Masonic Temple property at Ninth and F streets, and it will undoubtedly have purchasers at this price, as the F street real estate boom is on the increase, and daily bringing up the figures. Mr. Milburn, the druggist, formerly of this city, is the owner of the property.

THROWN OVER TO THE VIRGINIA AUTHORITIES.—On May 9 Edward Windsor and Edward Smith alias Walter Jones were arrested in Baltimore on information received from the Virginia authorities, for burglary in breaking into the store of Wm. Johnson, of Mathias Point, King George county. The men were sent to jail to await the action of the Virginia authorities. Last night Deputy Sheriff Daniel McDaniel arrived in Baltimore and will take the prisoners to Washington, and thence to King George Court House. As heretofore stated it is believed that these are the same men who robbed the stores of Mr. Bager and Mr. Towson in this city.

ASSESSMENT COMPLETED.—Mr. E. L. Thompson, the State assessor, has finished his assessment of real estate in this city and turned his books over to the clerk of the Corporation Court. The total $4,000 assessment of real estate in the city as fixed by Mr. Thompson, is $3,446,000—about $500,000 less than last year. This assessment is about $200,000 less than that made by Mr. W. F. Vincent in 1885, which assessment, however, was reduced about $175,000 by the court. Mr. Thompson had until the first of July to complete his assessment but did not take advantage of the 30 days additional to which he was entitled.

PERSONAL.—Mr. John S. Beach, clerk of the Corporation Court, has returned from Richmond where he went to attend the Lee monument unveiling. He was accompanied by two charming young ladies, Misses L. A. Crawford and E. Lee Cockrell, of Fairfax county. They were the guests of his brother, Mr. Samuel Beach, while in Richmond. Miss Mary Lunt left here to-day for Atlanta, Ga., to spend a month or so.

The youngest fireman in the State arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Mr. G. A. Apple.

Mr. Louis Brill, Jr., is seriously ill.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with one prisoner and no lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following case:

Henry Davis, colored, arrested by officer Davis charged with stealing iron from the Midland Railroad Company, was released on bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance when wanted.

To fix a line.—Before the adjournment of the Circuit Court for the county yesterday Judge Keith, with the consent of all the counsel concerned in the case of Ball vs. Douglas, appointed the surveyor of Loudoun county to survey and designate the Globe line, in Alexandria county. This survey will determine the line of several pieces of property in dispute in the county.

THE FIREMEN'S MEETING.—The Virginia State Firemen's Association will meet in this city, at the Opera House, to-morrow evening at 2 o'clock. The visitors will be welcomed by Mayor Downham and the response will be made by Geo. C. Cummins, of Portsmouth, secretary of the Association. Mr. J. C. Creighton, of this city, is president of the Association. After the speeches the Association will begin its work. This morning a delegation of Norfolk and Portsmouth firemen arrived, and this evening others are expected. The committee of arrangements are busy preparing every detail for the reception and entertainment of the visitors. A committee is at the Opera House to receive the firemen as they arrive, and all are requested to report there to secure their badges, tickets, &c. Each of the city fire companies has been requested by the city committee to appoint a committee of ten to attend the banquet to be given the visitors on Friday night and to assist in entertaining the guests. Among those who have been invited to ride in carriages in the parade on Thursday are the following: President Harrison, family and members of his Cabinet; Senators Barbour and Daniel, of Virginia; Hon. W. H. Byrum, of Indiana; Hon. John McMillan, of New York; Gen. W. H. F. Lee and the other Virginia Representatives in Congress; Hon. Frank Hume; State Senator Walton Moore; Elsie Meredith and city officials and ex-Mayors. The carriages will assemble before the Council Chamber at 1 p. m.

MARRIAGE.—Mr. William Campbell, of Scotland, now a resident of Charlottesville, Va., and Miss Ellen Moore Fowle, daughter of Mrs. Barbara and the late Rollins Fowle, were married at St. Paul's Church at noon to-day by Rev. S. A. Wallis, of Public Church, assisted by Rev. G. H. Norton. The best man was Mr. Albert Campbell, brother of the groom, and the maid of honor, was Miss Sallie V. Daingerfield. The ushers were Messrs. J. D. Hooe, J. E. Jones, Thomas Campbell, Leonard Gibbs, Mr. Lee and Dr. W. M. Smith. As the bridal party marched up the centre aisle, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Lennon, who presided at the organ, and preceding the party were the little Misses Mary H. Daingerfield and Emily H. Elliott, who strewed the bride's path with lovely flowers. The bride was dressed in gray, trimmed with steel passementerie and white "fille francie" with tulle to match, and gray and de sende, and held in her hand a bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony the wedding party were handsomely entertained by the bride's cousin, Mr. E. L. Daingerfield, at the Alexandria House, the rooms in which the reception was held being beautifully decorated with ferns, flowers, &c. Later Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left on the 1:20 train for New York.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held last night. The reports of various committees were received. Four applications for membership were received and referred to appropriate committees. Dr. Bedford Brown was elected surgeon to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. R. C. Powell. A committee of seven was appointed consisting of comrades P. B. Hooe, Edgar Warfield, Thos. Perry, Henry Charles, J. C. Smith, G. Wm. Ramsey and K. Kemper, to take into consideration the advisability of enrolling the names of such sons of Confederate Veterans as may make application, and making the junior body a permanent and auxiliary organization of R. E. Lee Camp.

STREET MATTERS.—The Committee on Streets held a meeting last night and awarded the contract for paving, gutting and curbing on Alfred and Patrick streets to Messrs. Newby & Studds.

The committee also prepared an ordinance which will be submitted at the next meeting of the City Common providing on what terms the streets can be used for a proposed line of street railroads.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—The Washington Real Estate Company held a meeting in this city yesterday evening and elected the following officers: viz: J. H. Walters, president; Lee Simmons, vice president; W. Mosely Williams, secretary; John Ridout, treasurer; W. H. Barstow, F. E. Corbett, George A. Jordan, B. S. Walker and J. Eldon, directors.

LICENSE LAW.

An Ordinance for Imposing and Collecting Licenses within the City of Alexandria, for the Year commencing on the 1st day of June, 1890, and ending on the 31st day of May, 1891.

Be it Enacted by the City Council of Alexandria, That there shall be levied, upon and collected from all persons required to be listed as subject to a license tax, the following taxes, viz:

1. On every license to sell ardent spirits or wines at wholesale, there shall be levied a tax of sixty dollars. This applies to persons selling in quantities of five gallons or more.

2. On every license to every brewer or wholesale dealer in malt liquors, twenty dollars.

3. On every license to sell wines, ardent spirits, or malt liquors, or any mixture thereof at retail, forty dollars. This applies to persons selling in quantities of less than five gallons, and not to be drunk on the premises.

4. On every license to sell wines, ardent spirits, or malt liquors at retail, to be drunk on the premises, or not fifty dollars. This law applies to bar rooms or where a bar is kept.

[Note.—Any person desiring to carry on the business of a wholesale liquor dealer and also that of a retail liquor merchant, shall obtain a separate license for each, but his retail license shall only be one-half of that required by section three.]

5. On every commission merchant or firm the specific license or tax shall be thirty dollars.

6. On every person for the privilege of peddling or bartering, the tax shall be ten dollars, and only the person named therein shall be privileged to peddle under this license.

7. On every person or corporation conducting the business of real estate agent, broker or auctioneer, there shall be levied a specific tax of fifty dollars.

8. On every person canvassing to sell books, maps, prints or pictures already published or peddling the same, ten dollars.

9. On every person canvassing for subscribers to any book or map, print or pictures not yet published, ten dollars.

10. On all agents for the sale of manufactured articles, sold by them on commission, or otherwise, ten dollars.

11. On general auctioneer, forty dollars; but no general auctioneer shall sell real estate without, in addition, taking out a license as a real estate agent, broker or auctioneer.

12. On every junk dealer, one hundred dollars.

13. On every person canvassing or buying any junk or any other matter for any junk dealer, or for sale to any junk dealer doing business in this city, fifteen dollars, and only one person can canvass under this license.

14. On every person who shall sell tobacco or cigars in quantities not less than one box, except manufacturers, six dollars.

15. On every ship broker, thirty dollars.

16. On every money broker, or firm of brokers or bankers, having an office within the city, one hundred and fifty dollars.

68. On every packer and shipper of oysters, there shall be a tax of ten dollars.

69. All persons owning or hiring horses and vehicles, and who make any charge for hauling their own merchandise, or the merchandise of others, shall be liable to the license tax of two dollars on horses and vehicles.

All persons embraced in this ordinance are required to make returns to the Commissioner of the Revenue at his office in the market building. He shall assess the license tax chargeable in this ordinance, and shall furnish to the Mayor, the Auditor, and Finance Committee the detailed amount of the assessment made on license, the name of the person or firm, and the period for which said license is issued to each, and shall duly certify the same on oath. The said amount of tax shall be paid to the Mayor before he shall issue the license, and all licenses shall state the amount assessed and paid for the privilege to be exercised, and for what period of time. The Commissioner of the Revenue shall be entitled to collect the amount of the license tax of each of 50 cents for each license. Where licenses for two or more vehicles of the same kind are issued, only a fee of 50 cents shall be charged. The licenses so granted, as aforesaid, shall be payable on or before the 1st day of July, 1890.

Any person who shall engage in or exercise any business, employment or profession without a license, where one or more is required, shall pay a fine of not less than three dollars, nor more than five dollars per day.

It shall be the duty of the Captain or Lieutenant of Police, or such officer as the Mayor may detail, to call quarterly upon each and every person doing business in the city and demand an exhibit of his or her license. The officer shall make his report to the Mayor, stating whether or not any person is doing a business other than that for which he or she has taken out a license, and should such be the case, the offender shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars, and be required to pay the cost of the proper license.

Every license granted for the unexpired portion of the term heretofore mentioned, shall be charged pro rata unless otherwise provided; but no license shall be granted for a longer period than to the first day of June, 1891, and no license shall be granted for a smaller sum than one dollar.

All subjects not specifically embraced in this ordinance and liable to taxation under the laws of the State, shall be assessed by the Commissioner of Revenue the same as for State purposes.

This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Passed Board of Aldermen May 27, 1890.
 W. H. MARBURY, President.

Passed Common Council May 19, 1890.
 JOHN T. SWEENEY, President.

Approved June 3, 1890.
 E. E. DOWNHAM, Mayor.
